CRICKET BLAST

Cricket Tasmania staff are currently working hard in the Woolworths Cricket Blast space in what promises to be an exciting season with the continued rollout of the program and some major growth targets for the region. See below some more information on key topics in the Cricket Blast space.

Setting up Programs on PlayHQ: The Blast Program is now live on PlayHQ and clubs are highly encouraged to get their programs set-up online to start taking registrations ASAP!

Blast Coordinator/Volunteer Training: To assist clubs and coordinators in the rollout of the Cricket Blast program, CT Community Cricket staff will be holding Blast Coordinator and Volunteer Training sessions closer to the commencement of the season. Further details will be communicated in the coming weeks.

Promotion Opportunities: Cricket Tasmania will be starting to ramp up our promotion of Cricket Blast in the school yard soon and we will be strongly encouraging clubs to get involved in and leverage these promotional opportunities to best promote their programs.

Clubs have also been strongly encouraged to start promoting their programs via social media and creating flyers which CT are able to assist with. With plenty of schools booked in for HBP visits we will be communicating these to clubs when confirmed.
