CRICKET BLAST

Cricket Tasmania staff are currently working hard in the Woolworths Cricket Blast space in what promises to be an exciting season with the continued rollout of the program and some major growth targets for the region. See below some more information on key topics in the Cricket Blast space.

Setting up Programs on PlayHQ: The Blast Program is now live on PlayHQ and clubs are highly encouraged to get their programs set-up online to start taking registrations ASAP!

Blast Coordinator/Volunteer Training: To assist clubs and coordinators in the rollout of the Cricket Blast program, CT Community Cricket staff will be holding Blast Coordinator and Volunteer Training sessions closer to the commencement of the season. Further details will be communicated in the coming weeks.

Promotion Opportunities: Cricket Tasmania will be starting to ramp up our promotion of Cricket Blast in the school yard soon and we will be strongly encouraging clubs to get involved in and leverage these promotional opportunities to best promote their programs.

Clubs have also been strongly encouraged to start promoting their programs via social media and creating flyers which CT are able to assist with. With plenty of schools booked in for HBP visits we will be communicating these to clubs when confirmed.

ACA GRASSROOTS CRICKET FUND – APPLICATIONS OPEN AUGUST 18TH 2025

The Grassroots Cricket Fund (GCF) was established in 2019 by Australia's professional cricketers to strengthen grassroots cricket for generations to come. The GCF ensures the cricket clubs throughout Australia gets the investment it needs to support those who help drive grassroots cricket and bring communities together.

The GCF is a partnership of the Australian Cricketers' Association and Cricket Australia, working together to help drive this vital program and grow grassroots cricket.

Cricket Australia are excited to introduce the Community Grants Program for the 2025/26 season, which aims to empower clubs like yours to excel in promoting cricket within your local communities, enhance community club experiences, and ensure clubs remain vital hubs for local connection and development.

For information on eligibility and how to apply for the funding click here.

Applications open on Monday August 18th 2025, with the GCF being open for four weeks to support clubs to prepare for the upcoming season and to help make them even better places to play the game. The round closes on Sunday, 14 September 2025 (11:59PM AEST), so be sure to have your applications in prior
