CNW JUNIOR COMPETITION 2026/27 – KEY UPDATES AND REMINDERS

We hope all Junior Games got underway well over the weekend and that all the kids had a terrific time and enjoyed their cricket. The purpose of this email is to provide a quick update on rosters for the CNW Junior Competitions.

The Under 12s Division 1 and 2, and Under 14s rosters are now completed up until Round 3. There has been a number of changes following some sides changing divisions, and following this weekend Sheffield CC will withdraw its Under 14s and drop this back to Under 12s Division 1.

Rosters can be viewed via the link here or via the PlayCricket App: https://www.playhq.com/cricket-australia/org/cricket-north-west/cricket-north-west-junior-competitions-summer-202627/9e833bb6

Cricket Tasmania will aim to release the remainder of the pre-Christmas part of the roster next week, noting that clubs must comply with the below requirements around Mandatory Junior Coach Registration and linking this with each of your Junior teams. Josh Marshall will be in touch with clubs to provide a status update on where your club is currently at in terms of the Mandatory Junior Coach Registration process.

If there is anything we can help with during the Junior Cricket season please reach out via email or feel free to call Josh Marshall or Mitch Jones

COACH APPORACH UPCOMING SESSIONS – IMPORTANT REMINDER

Cricket Tasmania is continuing to run Coach Approach upskill sessions over the next few weeks after the successful early sessions in the season. These 90-minute practical sessions provide coaches of all levels with activities, ideas and tips to run engaging training sessions at their club. Clubs will also receive an equipment pack to assist with running training sessions in their own environment. These sessions are also now Cricket Australia certified courses.

Dates, locations and times for the Greater Northen sessions are:

- Monday November 16, 6pm - 7:30pm, Ulverstone Cricket Club

Here is the registration link: Coach Approach Upskill Registration 2026/27 – Fill out form

Following attendance at Coach Approach sessions, coaches can request an Individualised Club Training Visit from Cricket Tasmania Coaching staff, where we can assist you at one of your junior sessions and provide further support at your club.

For more information or if you have any questions contact Ryan Kelly via rkelly@crickettas.com.au

CNW CAPTAINS REPORT REQUIREMENTS – IMPORTANT REMINDER

Cricket North West wishes to reminder clubs that the completion of a Captain's Report is compulsory for Men's 1st & 2nd Grade and for Women's 1st Grade. The link can be found here.

Failure to complete by Monday at 10pm will result, going forward in penalty point deduction.

Any questions please contact Cricket North-West via cricketnorthwest@outlook.com.au

CNW RULES AND RESOURCES REMINDERS

Cricket North West wishes to remind clubs of the below key topics following further discussions this week.

- For Men's 2nd Grade where only one umpire is available, Clubs should look to ensure that unless unavoidable to limit u16 players officiating in square leg umpire role, with more senior individuals taking on the role.
- Updates have been made to address some points noted and JDO changes in CNW Junior Roles Handbook (CNW Website / Resources). http://www.cricketnorthwest.com.au
- Clubs are encouraged to have coaches, captains and players read through the CNW Code of Behaviour (CNW Website / Resources). http://www.cricketnorthwest.com.au
- CNW Rules Handbook included for Women's Competitions. Women's 1st grade section on 30/30 games to be completed. (CNW Website / Resources). http://www.cricketnorthwest.com.au
- For all Men's 1st and 2nd Grade and Women's 1st Grade games where coloured clothing is worn, Clubs are encouraged to request players to have pads in club colours or use coloured clads over pads.

Any questions please contact Cricket North-West via cricketnorthwest@outlook.com.au

CNW VS CN WOMEN AND GIRLS REPRESENTATIVE SERIES INFO

The 2026/27 CNW v CN Women's and Girls' Representative Series will see players from both regions come together across three scheduled match days throughout the season.

Confirmed dates and venues are as follows:

- Sunday 22 November 2026 – Invermay Park, Mowbray
- Sunday 6 December 2026 – North West Coast (venue TBC)
- Sunday 17 January 2027 – Ingamells Oval, Westbury

Further information regarding team selections, match formats and start times will be communicated to clubs as details are finalised.

Clubs are encouraged to make their players aware of these dates and support the representative opportunities available throughout the season.

MANDATORY JUNIOR COACH REGISTRATIONS – IMPORTANT REMINDER

As has been previously discussed at the Pre-Season Junior Meeting, this season CT and CNW will introduce Mandatory Junior Coach Registrations via PlayHQ.

The purpose of mandatory coach registrations is two-fold:

- Child Safety requirements for all coaches to have a WWVP and provide this in a central location on PlayHQ.
- Provide Junior Coach contact details so they can be provided support, resources and upskill opportunities throughout the season

All Junior teams will be required to have a registered coach and this coach be linked to the relevant Junior team on PlayHQ. Coaches will need to provide their WWVP details on PlayHQ when they register in the system.

Any teams / clubs who do not have a Coach registered and linked to their team no later than Round 3 (November 22nd) of competitions or they will be removed from the competition until they do so. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Each team should have their own coach and one person cannot be the coach across all Junior teams.

CNW WEBSITE – RULES, FORMS & RESOURCES – IMPORTANT REMINDER

Clubs are reminded that the Cricket North West website is a central location for important competition information, documents and resources throughout the 2026/27 season.

The Resources tab will contain the latest updated sections of the 2026/27 CNW Rules Handbook as they are finalised and released, along with links to Captains Reports, important forms and other competition resources. Clubs, players and officials are encouraged to regularly check the website to ensure they are accessing the most up to-date information throughout the season.

Best of luck to any Cricket North Women's players taking part in next weeks carnival.

CNW CLUB FACILITY AND PROPERTY RESPECT

Clubs are respectfully reminded of the need or players/supporters/teams/clubs to be respectful of opposition club's facilities and properties when playing games at their facilities.

This includes leaving changerooms + grandstands in a tidy and respectable condition, not wearing playing spikes in clubrooms or on covers, and not using Disrespecting or damaging another clubs property, equipment or facility can be a breach of the CNW Code of Conduct and should be taken seriously by clubs in both the Senior and Junior Competitions.
